Collect

Almighty God, your blessed apostles Peter and Paul glorified you in their death as in their life. Grant that your Church, inspired by their teaching and example, and made one by your Spirit, may ever stand firm upon the one foundation, Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Ezekiel 34:11-16

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Psalm 87

Fundamenta ejus.

His foundation is upon the holy hills: / the Lord loveth the gates of Sion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

² Very excellent things are spoken of thee, / thou city of God.

³ I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon, / as among them that know me.

⁴ Behold Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia; / lo, this one was born there.

⁵ Yea, of Sion it shall be said, 'This one and that one were born in her'; / and the Most High himself shall establish her.

⁶ The Lord shall reckon when he writeth up the peoples, / that this one was born there.

⁷ The singers also and dancers shall say, / 'All my fresh springs are in thee.'

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:1-8

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

fathers thou shalt have children : therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee. Alleluia, alleluia. Thou art Simon Bar-Jona, and to thee hath been revealed the word of the Father : not by flesh and blood, but by my Father which is in heaven. Alleluia.

Gospel

John 21:15-19

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the twenty-first chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St John, beginning at the fifteenth verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my lambs.” A second time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Tend my sheep.” He said to him the third time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, “Do you love me?” And he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.” (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, “Follow me.”

Post-Communion Hymn

O Canada

True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
the true north, strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

² O Canada! Where pines and maples grow, great prairies spread and lordly rivers flow,
how dear to us thy broad domain,
from east to western sea!
Thou land of hope for all who toil!
Thou true north strong and free!

God keep our land glorious and free! ...

³ O Canada! Beneath thy shining skies may stalwart sons and gentle maidens rise to keep thee steadfast through the years
from east to western sea,
our own beloved native land,
our true north strong and free!

God keep our land glorious and free! ...

⁴ Ruler supreme, who hearest humble prayer,
hold our dominion in thy loving care.
Help us to find, O God, in thee
a lasting rich reward,
as waiting for the better day,
we ever stand on guard.

God keep our land glorious and free! ...
