The Collect

Almighty God, you sent your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of the world. Free us from all that darkens and ensnares us, and bring us to eternal light and joy; through the power of him who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The First Reading: Judges 4:1-7

The first reading is taken from the fourth chapter of the book of Judges, beginning at the first verse.

The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, after Ehud died. So the Lord sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Haroshethhagoiim. Then the Israelites cried out to the Lord for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years.

At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgement.

She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "The Lord, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun. I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.'".

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 123 Ad te levavi oculos meos. II.1.

[1] UN-TO thee lift I up mine eyes, / O thou that dwellest in the heav-ens.

[2] Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their mas-ters, / and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mis-tress,

[3] Even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, / until he have mercy up-on us.

[4] Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy up-on us; / for we are utterly des-pis-ed.

[5] Our soul is fillèd with the scornful reproof of the weal-thy, / and with the despiteful-ness of^ the proud.

The Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

The second reading is taken from the fifth chapter of the first letter of Paul to the Thessalonians, beginning at the first verse.

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape!

But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night.

But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

571 Take My Life and Let it Be Nottingham

Gradual Proper

It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies : and puttest them to confusion that hate us. ℣. We make our boast in God all day long : and will praise thy Name for ever. Alleluia. Alleluia. ℣. He maketh peace in thy borders : and filleth thee with the flour of wheat. Alleluia.

The Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the twenty-fifth chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Matthew, beginning at the fourteenth verse.
Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.'

But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents.

For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Baked goods, deli food and Christmas treats!
Baked goods, deli foods and Christmas treats are also very popular! Many can be prepared ahead and frozen until the bazaar. Ready-to-eat meals in one- or two-person portions—such as jerk chicken, baked beans, soups, stews, quiche and shepherd's pie—are especially welcome.
Baked goods may be brought to church in the days before the bazaar. Please bring all other foods no earlier than Friday, as refrigerated space is extremely limited.
